THE BHOYS FIRST EVER IOWA PERFORMANCE!

In my opinion the Glengarry Bhoys are undoubtedly the best Celtic Rock Band on tour today. Their unique brand of Celtic music comes from a centuries old tradition of Irish and Scottish settlers in Glengarry Canada with a little French thrown in for good measure! Innovative songwriting along with amazing musical talent and unbounded energy combines to create an unforgettable experience! You know their music, it's played in the shop 24/7; that toe tappin get you movin brand of Celtic Rock only the way the Bhoys can do it. If you think their music is fun, wait till you see them live! This is one incredible show from beginning to end; jam packed with magnificent music, wacky stage antics and non stop craziness; a Bhoys performance is something special indeed. Bring all your friends, meet the Bhoys and see what all the excitement is about! You will walk away from this show wanting to see the Glengarry Bhoys again and again.....and again.....and again!

Meet the Bhoys (and their Ghirl!)

Graham

Founder, lead singer, guitarist, and driving force behind the GB's—figuratively and literally (he drives the bus a lot)! It's Graham's incredible voice you hear on every one of the 6 GB's CDs! Graham seems to have an unnatural attachment to mon-keys....

James

Highland bagpipes, whistles, piano, vocals, and resident scent expert (don't ask). James has a master's degree in music and taught music before throwing caution to the wind joining the Bhoys. James also does an excellent bubble boy dance!

Shelley

Fiddle, vocals, step dancing—and the most beautiful smile that never leaves her face throughout the entire performance! Shelley can step dance and fiddle at the same time—now that's talent! She also has to be extremely feisty and tough to travel the country with these guys!

Gibby

Bass, vocals, and king of goofy faces! Gibby's expressions are well matched by his peculiar sense of humor and extremely unbounded energy. If you hear sheep noises, this is the most likely source. He's also a big ham—so if you have a camera, he will find you!

Ziggy

Percussion, bodhran, vocals and on RARE occasion step dancing! Sorry folks, you won't get to meet Ziggy this time 'round. He is back in Canada preparing for his law bar exam! Which WILL come in handy—this band needs a good lawyer! I'm assured Zig's replacement Matt is filling his shoes nicely!
